The Secretary was asked to post notice re Nominations meeting seven clear days prior to nomination, which is February 1, 1932 (namely first Monday in February, 1932).

Being to the fact that the Perkinsons taxes amounting to $22.00 are now in arrears and impossible to collect as the Perkinsons did away with all goods and chattels and left the district, it was decided that we would be further ahead to cancel the taxes than to undertake to collect them. The Secretary was therefore authorized to cancel same.

Moved that the Secretary close all books and have them audited as soon as possible.

Moved that the meeting adjourn.

Done and passed in Council assembled this 11th day of January 1932.
