After the operation for appendicitis with one Wuppelheit girl, who was at the time in the employ of the King George Hotel, and the Council had received notice from the Hospital, that such account had been charged to the Village, every thing was done that could be thought of to compel this girl to pay her own hospital account. The sisters of this girl were interviewed several times, with the hope that they would have principle enough to at least pay something, which was refused on all occasions.

Moved and seconded that the meeting adjourn.

Resolved and passed in Council assembled this 12th day of October 1932.
