

Minutes of a special meeting of the Council of the Village of Weisaker held on ~~Monday~~ Friday, July 9, 1954, in the office of the Mayor.

Councillors Present....

Mayor L.L.Schmaltz
Councillors: Adam Velker
W.J.Lavoie

Mrs. Wald ... Local editor.

The discussion opened on the topic of the coming opening of the Water and Sewage system and the Mayor asked Mrs. Wald on the behalf of the council if she would be interested in getting out a special edition of the paper to salute the occasion. She agreed and asked for information regarding advertising and the persons and firms to contact. Mrs. Wald promised to investigate the proposal and with a view to seeing whether or not it would be of any cost to the village.

The subject of a Bar-B-Q for the celebration was discussed and from the facts gathered recently about them it was decided to be too costly.

Bon-faires and a weiner roast was agreed upon and the council proceeded to set up the plans for such an undertaking. Weiners, pop and buns were to be distributed to the crowd, speakers from the government were to be arranged for and a programme inviting the communities surrounding was to be mailed out.

Town foreman

A discussion of the needed town foreman took place and after discussing the qualifications of various men about the community and the recommendations of the engineers and Poole Construction; MOTION BY Councillor Velker that Mr. Jake Krenzler be hired at a salary of $2100.00^{1/yr.} a 40 hour week, and 24 hour call.
